Dear valued customer, FINALIST

Thanks to your continued support, we are thrilled and honoured to announce that we have been selected as a finalist amongst other well respected brands for the Drapers Independents Awards for

“Womenswear Brand of the Year”

Drapers is one of the most important voices of independent retailers.

We are strong believers in independent retailers like you, who inspire us every day to continue to create the best fashion and give you the highest quality, remarkable customer service and most importantly great sell through.

Voting is now open until July 10th, 2015. Share in our excitement and vision for the future by voting for us at the following link <http://www.drapersonline.com>

We would really appreciate your support and look forward to many successful seasons to come!

Best Regards from Montreal, Canada
